

[USER Project: What does really mean "public space"? \[1\]](#)

16 June 2014 - 12:38pm

Béatrice Alcaraz

Public space can be seen as more than just the physical space owned by the state based on property regulations. It is the space owned by all, and which, from a socio-cultural point of view, is the community expression of the contact and communion among individuals.

USER Project, led by the Grenoble-Alpes Metropole (France), gathers 8 european local authorities: Copenhagen (DK), Krakow (PL), Dresden (DE), Lisbon (PT), Lublin (PL) Malaga (ES), Pescara (IT) and Riga (LV).

The nine (...)

Source:

<http://www.energy-cities.eu/USER-Project-What-does-really-mean> [2]

Source URL: <https://pocacito.eu/blog/2014-06-16/user-project-what-does-really-mean-public-space>

Links

[1] <https://pocacito.eu/blog/2014-06-16/user-project-what-does-really-mean-public-space>

[2] <http://www.energy-cities.eu/USER-Project-What-does-really-mean>